

TO: Faculty, Staff, Students, and Stakeholders

FROM: NPRC Administration

DATE: May 4, 2020

SUBJECT: COVID-19 Update

While the state will allow some businesses in the region to re-open over the course of the next few weeks, NPRC will continue to offer classes through remote delivery during the summer semester. All class meetings will continue to be recorded and released as needed. As soon as it is allowed and reasonable, we will return to our regular instructional delivery.

NPRC will continue to follow state regulations and recommendations during this time as the health of our students, faculty, staff, and communities are most important. Our staff will continue to work remotely until further notice. They are monitoring incoming phone calls and messages and will respond as quickly as possible. Students who have a technology challenge outside of class times, you may fill out this online form or email helpdesk@rrcnpa.org. For help during class sessions, our Instructional Support Specialist, Regina Russell can be contacted via email at rrussell@rrcnpa.org or by cell at 814-584-0067.

Additional updates will be provided as they become available. Thank you again for your patience and understanding during this time.
